May 5, 2003

At 3:15 p.m. on May 5, 2003, the Faculty Senate meeting did not convene in the University Conference Room (224 I. G. Greer Hall).

The May meeting did not convene due to a lack of quorum because the meeting fell during many of the senators’ exam times. While waiting for senators to gather, Senator K. Simon informed and updated senators on campus parking and planning issues.

As previously requested by senators and scheduled as a visitor on the agenda, Jane Helm, Vice Chancellor of Business Affairs, addressed, reported and discussed with the senators in attendance the campus parking plans, issues and concerns. Because of the lack of quorum, informal discussion and debate took place but no action was taken.

An informal gathering of incoming and outgoing senators was held later that evening at the Broyhill Inn.

At 3:15 p.m. on May 9, 2003, the Faculty Senate meeting did not convene in the University Conference Room (224 I. G. Greer Hall).

Chair Gates called a special Senate meeting on Friday, May 9, 2003 due to the fact that senators needed to elect Faculty Senate Officers for the 2003-2004 academic year and that had not taken place at the May 5th meeting due to a lack of quorum.

At the special May 9th meeting there was also a lack of quorum and the meeting did not convene. No action was taken.
Because many senators would soon be leaving for the summer, the chair called for nominations of officers and the casting of ballots to be recorded by senators via email. Officers were nominated and elected as follows: Chair, Paul Gates; Vice-Chair, Andy Koch; Secretary, Mike Moore.
